

Saint Margaret of Scotland Church, Newark, Delaware

Specialized central audio systems were designed to equally cover the unique interior shape of this sanctuary. The front central cluster were designed and located to not interfere with the architectural design or impact the visual focus of the congregation. The systems, both audio and video, were designed to allow for future expansion as budget and need arise. Flexibility for various services and events and ease of use was also a cornerstone for the design.

Technology Services:

- Audio / Video Design
- Voice / Data Infrastructure Design and Coordination
- Program and Design Development
- Architect and Facility Coordination
- Technology Documentation
- RFQ Development for Technology

